THE EXILE: Judah fell to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Many of the inhabitants were deported to Babylon. In 539 BC, Babylon fell to the Medes and Persians. In 538 BC, King Cyrus of Persia issued a proclamation allowing the Jewish people to return to Palestine. Some Jews stayed in Babylon, but those who returned went back in several groups over many years. The Temple was rebuilt in 516 BC, 70 years after its destruction.

The Relationship

An aerial photograph of the archaeological site of Megiddo, showing the extensive ruins of the city on a hillside. The site is surrounded by green fields and a road. In the background, a large body of water (the Sea of Galilee) and distant mountains are visible under a clear blue sky. An inset map in the top right corner shows the location of Megiddo in the northern part of Israel, with a red dot marking the site and a red box indicating the area shown in the main image. The map includes various place names and geographical features like the Sea of Galilee and the Jordan River.
