It is the first paragraph of the text. It was born in January in B.C. 63. It came from a rich family as he got a good education. When he was young he loved to learn. He was a prominent person on his father's generation and philosophy. He wrote many books which are used as reference books today. He never left his 70 years in January when he called "my hometown". He died in January in A.D. 21.
