

Greetings from The Keo Family Missionaries to Cambodia

Our family hopes this letter finds you well. Though time is flying by, God is still doing amazing things through the ministry in Cambodia. Souls are being saved and baptized, new believers are growing, and new ministries are being started in various villages. Here are some of the blessings God has given us these past couple of months.

UPDATE ON OUR FAMILY:

A few months ago, I sent out a letter informing all our supporting churches that my wife and I cannot go back to Cambodia at this time. We praise God that Justin and Andrew are still there serving God with our team of missionaries. They attend our Bible College and serve in the Childrens Ministry. Please pray that our sons will continue to be faithful to God and do His will. For the last several months, we have been working on starting a Vietnamese Ministry at our home church in Long Beach, CA. We are door knocking and witnessing in Westminster and Garden Grove; cities in Orange county where there is a big population of Vietnamese. We have had several visit our church on Sunday morning and evening. Please be in prayer for our visitors.

MINISTRIES IN CAMBODIA:

On March 17th, our churches and ministries came together for a time of wonderful worship and fellowship. On this special day, the emphasis was on missions. Praise the Lord there were also nearly 20 folks baptized in believers' baptism. Pray for their faith to grow in the Lord and that God will use our church in Cambodia to effectively be a witness of the gospel. In March, our church had the opportunity and privilege to expand our church auditorium to fit 60-70 more chairs. This new space has been a huge blessing as there are enough chairs for members and visitors now.

Pacific International Academy's new school building was completed in April. The academy's new term started on May 1st, with many new students, some who do not come from a Christian Family. Please pray that they will hear the gospel and receive love from their teachers and will come to know Jesus Christ as their Savior.
